Inspire Greatness

#INSPIRE GREATNESS

The best players in women's golf are set to take the stage once again for the 2018 KPMG Women's PGA Championship. June 26–July 1, 2018. The stage—Kemper Lakes Golf Club in Kildeer, Illinois—will host a Major Championship for the first time since hosting the 1989 PGA Championship, when the late Payne Stewart came from behind to win the first of his three Major Championships. Now, after an extensive clubhouse renovation and course upgrades, Kemper Lakes will end its 16-year hiatus from tournament golf and prepare the course for international attention.

A collaboration between the PGA of America, the LPGA Tour and KPMG, the KPMG Women's PGA Championship is one of the most prestigious Major Championships in women's golf with a mission to inspire fans and young girls nationwide and promote women's leadership initiatives—both on and off the golf course.

The Championship returns to the Windy City after last year's nail-biting finish at Olympia Fields Country Club, where breakout LPGA Tour star Danielle Kang turned in a dominating Sunday performance to capture her first career win and Major Championship. Kang delivered four birdies on the back nine to outlast a charging Brooke Henderson, the 2016 KPMG Women's PGA Champion. Kang will return to Chicago as a Major Champion, poised to defend her title in front of excited Chicagoland fans.

The excitement—on and off the golf course—is why the LPGA is bringing its best 156-player field back to Chicago for the second time in as many years. Over the past two years, each of the top 100 players on the LPGA Official Money List were included in the field, which featured a staggering 24 Major Champions.

"WE ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO RETURNING TO THE CHICAGOLAND AREA FOR ANOTHER YEAR OF MAJOR CHAMPIONSHIP GOLF"

— Jackie Endsley, Championship Director

"We are looking forward to returning to the Chicagoland area for another year of Major Championship golf," said Jackie Endsley, Championship Director. "The Chicago sports fans have been so receptive and welcoming to this Championship; it is the perfect place to bring all of this together and we can hardly wait for 2018."

With its international platform and promotional efforts, the KPMG Women's PGA Championship will aim to "Inspire Greatness" among its athletes, fans, and young adults.

"This Championship provides us an opportunity to highlight the incredible work that KPMG does for women and young leaders looking to take that next step," Endsley said. "This is a tremendous event and opportunity for young golfers and girls to learn from some extraordinary women and witness the best players in the world."

For those interested in an up-close, behind the scenes look at a Major Championship, volunteering at the KPMG Women's PGA Championship is one of the best ways to experience the action. As the Championship reaches new heights, volunteers will play a major role in delivering a memorable experience for players, spectators and the local Chicago golf community. All volunteers will receive a uniform, a credential providing site access from Tuesday through Sunday of event week, a Championship program, and a limited number of meal and water vouchers. Volunteers can choose from 25 distinct categories, each of which offers an experience and opportunity for local residents of the North Suburbs of Chicago to be part of this Major Championship. For more information about volunteer opportunities, visit the Championship website, www.KPMGWomensPGA.com.

Highland Park's Exmoor Country Club to host 2018 Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship

Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS<sup>SM</sup>

Scott McCarron, Defending Champion

Exmoor Clubhouse

The 2018 Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship will be played at Exmoor Country Club in Highland Park, Illinois, July 11-15, marking the first time since 1997 that one of the five senior major championships has been held in the greater Chicago area.

Conducted by the WGA and PGA TOUR Champions, the event will feature a roster of all-time greats in golf, including past Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS champions Jay Haas, Fred Couples, Kenny Perry, Bernhard Langer and 2017 champion Scott McCarron. Other well-known stars expected to compete at Exmoor include Vijay Singh, John Daly, Colin Montgomerie, Miguel Angel Jimenez, Jeff Sluman and Lee Janzen.

Tickets to the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship are available now at www.CSPGolf.com. Wednesday, July 11, practice round tickets are $18, and any day tournament round tickets for Thursday-Sunday, July 12-15, are $35. A weekly booklet is $79.

"We're pleased to be bringing some of the game's legends to Exmoor and Chicago's North Shore," said Vince Pellegrino, WGA senior vice president of tournaments. "We know first-hand how much fans in Chicago love golf, and we're looking forward to the energy and excitement the 2018 Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship will generate."

Many of the PGA TOUR Champions stars last played in the Chicago area in the BMW Championship, formerly the Western Open, so fans will have a unique opportunity to see their favorite players compete in a senior major at a classic championship venue.

"Chicago is a key market for Constellation and home to our parent company Exelon," said Kristina Gregory, vice president, Marketing Communications, Constellation. "The move to Exmoor will enable us to host the championship at another memorable course, strengthen our relationships with our many customers in the region and share its long tradition of giving back to the greater Chicago community."

Exmoor is one of the more storied clubs in the greater Chicago area, with a history dating back to 1896. The club was one of 11 charter clubs that established the WGA in 1899 and is one of just seven WGA founding clubs remaining.

"To have the legends of the game of golf grace us with their presence is a testament to the powerful place that Exmoor Country Club holds in the local community for hosting meaningful and memorable sporting competitions," said Sandy Stevenson, the club's general chairman for the event.

John Daly

In addition to daily and weekly grounds tickets, several ticket options are available for the Egan Pavilion.

EGAN PAVILION

The Egan Pavilion Hospitality tent on the 15th green offers upgraded food and beverages available for purchase inside the venue. This pavilion has tables and open seating available to ticket holders. Children 16 and under do not need a ticket if accompanied by an adult (limit 4 children per adult).

Wednesday (July 11) Egan Pavilion tickets are $23, Any Day Tournament Round (July 12-15) Egan Pavilion tickets are $55, and Weekly Egan Pavilion Booklets are $119.

The Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship has raised more than $11 million for charity since 1992. The WGA-supported Evans Scholars Foundation has been selected as a primary beneficiary of the 2018 Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. For more information on the WGA and Evans Scholarships visit: www.wgaesf.org.

2019 U.S. SENIOR OPEN

THE ULTIMATE TEST IN GOLF!

JUNE 24 – 30, 2019

USGA®

The 40th U.S. Senior Open Championship, conducted by the United States Golf Association (USGA), will return to the Chicagoland area for the first time in more than two decades when The Warren Golf Course at Notre Dame hosts the greatest names in the game June 24-30, 2019. Fred Couples, Tom Watson, Miguel Ángel Jiménez, Steve Stricker and many more will compete for the coveted U.S. Senior Open Trophy.

Kenny Perry,
Champion

"This is a tremendous opportunity to showcase the golf course, the University and the South Bend area to not only the thousands of people attending, but TV viewers worldwide who might not have tuned in on Saturdays to watch Notre Dame football," said John Foster, 2019 U.S. Senior Open General Chairman.

The U.S. Senior Open started as a result of the remarkable growth in senior golf, both at the professional and amateur levels. The first U.S. Senior Open was contested in 1980 and was hosted on the East Course of Winged Foot Golf Club in Mamaroneck, N.Y. The winner was Roberto De Vicenzo.

Since then, the U.S. Senior Open has continued to be contested at notable sites around the country. In 2019, it will be the first time in the U.S. Senior Open Championship's history that it will be played on a college campus and a public golf course.

Designed by Bill Coore and Ben Crenshaw, The Warren Golf Course at Notre Dame opened for play on May 1, 2000. The public, links-style course is nestled among 250 acres of woodlands.

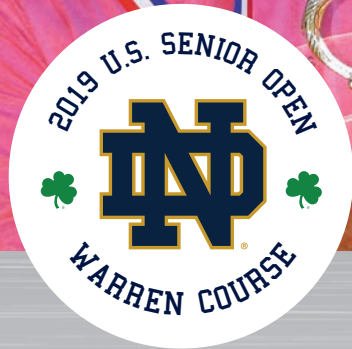

FOX and FOX Sports 1 will broadcast 20+ live hours of the Championship to over 120 countries.

"We think we have the perfect venue to deliver the absolute best fan experience and player experience a major championship can offer."

John Foster, general manager and head golf professional at the Warren Course

Bill Abrams named Central Illinois PGA Teacher of the Year

BILL ABRAMS

Finding a great golf instructor is no easy task. Finding a passionate golf instructor who gives so much of himself to others through the game of golf is also almost impossible to find. However, Bill Abrams, continues to get recognized by the golf industry as just such a person, teacher and mentor.

Golf Solutions Academy at Balmoral Woods Director of Instruction, Bill Abrams PGA, was recently named "2017 CIPGA Teacher of the Year". This is the second CIPGA Teacher of the Year Abrams has been awarded by the CIPGA (2004, 2017) plus CIPGA Professional of the Year (2005, 2012).

"I am extremely honored to be awarded such a prestigious recognition by my peers. It is truly humbling. I have to thank all of the players I have helped over the years. Without them there is no way I could ever have been recognized."

In addition to this award, Golf Range Association of America also selected Bill Abrams as a "2017 Top 50 Growth of the Game Teaching Professional".

Golf Solutions Academy will be entering its 20th season at Balmoral Woods in 2018. For information on lessons, clinics and events contact Balmoral Woods at www.balmoralwoods.com or call 708-672-7448.

Beautiful Bunkers At Chicago's Home For Golf!

Written by Brian Jordan,
Harborside International

$1.5M Bunker Renovation Complete At Harborside International

The year 2017 saw a full bunker renovation throughout Harborside International. It was clear to the Port Authority, KemperSports and our agronomy experts that a large number of bunkers on both courses had exceeded their useable lifespan, causing drainage issues and poor conditions. We undertook this extensive renovation to ensure a best-in-class experience for our golfers now and into the future.

Our main goal was to enhance drainage and playability throughout the entire facility. Over 50 bunkers were removed, and others were reshaped and repaired.

The objective of the renovation was to increase enjoyment of play and enhance the golf experience for everyone—by providing a consistent playing surface, maximizing the unique qualities of the course, and highlighting the natural aspects of the land.

We are confident the finished project will enhance a great playing experience for the future of "Chicago's Home for Golf".

The objective of the renovation was to increase enjoyment of play and enhance the golf experience for everyone.

CHICAGO HELICOPTER EXPERIENCE

Helicopter Charters: The New Way to Entertain Business Clients

By: Kerry Nenn

They've driven. They've dined. They've double eagled. Your clients have "done" Chicago. Or, have they?

To truly experience the Windy City, visitors are no longer simply strolling the Magnificent Mile or scrambling through traffic to reach a five-star steakhouse. Clientele have discovered a better way to do Chicago. It elevates their experience far above the Blue Line and gives their visit an entirely new trajectory.

Soaring in popularity, helicopter charters have quickly become the most exciting, efficient and affordable way to entertain guests and leave a lasting impression. It's easy to see why. Helicopter charters skip the crawling urban traffic to ensure guests make their tee times. They offer a new approach to seeing the sights. They deliver a unique experience that clients are not likely to forget.

If you're looking for a new business entertainment option, consider chartering a helicopter to get you and your clients directly to the golf course.

Unique golf getaways are now available to incorporate this latest mode of transportation. Golfers who have toured every circuit are enjoying the first-class courses of Northern Illinois, Northern Indiana, and Southwest Michigan in a new way. With quick flight times and convenient country-club landing sites, helicopter charters are the premier choice for golf enthusiasts.

Helicopters can land at country clubs, local airports, resorts, and even private residences with adequate open space. Pick up clients at their home course and take them directly to another high-end course. Chicago to Lost Dunes in Bridgman, MI is just a quick 35-minute flight vs. the two-hour drive on busy, traffic-choked highways.

Chicago's leading helicopter transportation company, Chicago Helicopter Experience (www.chetours.com), offers tours, charters and golf experience packages. Since its founding in 2012, thousands of passengers have enjoyed high-class flights in the fleet of Eurocopter AS350's. The helicopters feature large, quiet cabins equipped with luxurious amenities. Each can accommodate up to six passengers, and they are equipped with ample luggage space which can hold four golf bags.

Professionals and amateurs alike have discovered this option and have adopted it as their new norm for Chicagoland travel. Mike Ditka notes, "For short trips to the golf course, I enjoy using CHE as my choice of transportation."

CHE offers comprehensive packages that are ideal for golfers. Exclusive partnerships with a growing number of select country clubs, combined with a one-of-a-kind private heliport just two miles from the Loop, allow unique charters not found elsewhere.

630.842.3455 | www.chetours.com
2420 S. Halsted St., Chicago, IL 60608

Country Club Charters—Golfers enjoy helicopter transport to and from Lost Dunes Golf Club (Bridgman, Michigan), Bull Valley Golf Club (Woodstock, Illinois), Harborside International Golf Center (Chicago, Illinois), and Whittaker Woods (New Buffalo, Michigan), among others.

VIP City Experience Tours—Clients board the helicopter at a country club or local airport and embark on an aerial tour of the city of Chicago. Guests land at CHE's private heliport, where they are taken by private car service to enjoy a four-course dinner. This full-service package is available for $2,400 for up to 6 passengers.

Group Tours & Meetings—Do you struggle to get your prospects to a meeting? Host your group's meeting on site at the Chicago heliport. It's become the new sweet spot for group outings and sales presentations. CHE offers a private event space for presentations or a roundtable meeting with lunch. Meetings start here, then hit the skies for a memorable tour of the city.

The Home Of Golf... & The Ultimate Bucket-List Golf Getaway!

By Cheryl Justak

Old Course at St. Andrews

As the OPEN Championship is underway at Royal Birkdale Golf Club in Southport, England and the RICOH Women's British Open is set to take center stage at Kingsbarns Golf Links in Fife, Scotland in early August, the memories of my bucket-list trip to St Andrews, Scotland are still heavy on my mind along with major jetlag and a longing to return to this magical country and historic beginnings of golf.

Our golf issue this season focuses on ultimate golf getaways and appropriately featured, a trip to St. Andrews, Scotland ranks at the top of this list. If you have not played golf overseas in Ireland, Scotland or England, you definitely need to add it to your bucket list of golf trips to take. Definitely do it while you have the energy, stamina and physical ability to enjoy this exceptional style of challenging and weather-driven golf. I would also encourage you to work with a tour or travel company to plan your trip for the first time, as it will give you peace of mind, secure bookings, and you will get a better experience and price as a result.

You also need to make sure your passport is up to date and to plan on extra time going through Customs and Security at the airports. Flying direct, non-stop is the only way to go and United Airlines was the one airline that had a direct, non-stop round trip flight from Chicago O'Hare into Edinburgh, Scotland – an hour's drive to St. Andrews, Scotland and the closest airport. We were also encouraged to take out travel insurance, especially if you fly connection flights as we were told over 40% of golf clubs are lost during transit and don't make it to your destination when you arrive. Not good odds by any means!

Playing the Old Course at St. Andrews has always been something I wanted to do ... eventually. However, an email came from Troon Golf in February of 2016 that featured golf trips to Scotland provided by a fairly new company called St. Andrews Golf Travel. With your booking, you were guaranteed a tee time at St. Andrews Old Course, which many golfers wait years to secure a tee time, or try their luck with going into a lottery with not much result. With a guaranteed tee time on the Old Course, that sparked my interest into looking further into this company and to the various trip options they provided. After some research on the company, reading testimonials from other golfers who had used this company, and the many emails back and forth with questions about trip options over several months, I felt comfortable in booking a trip with St. Andrews Golf Travel.

We booked our trip in July of 2016 with a travel date of July 2017 – a year in advance! We had to pay a 40% deposit (wire transfer of British pounds) when the tee times were secured at the Old Course (September, 2016) and the final 60% four months before our trip (March, 2017).

Swilcan Bridge At The Old Course

We opted to stay at the 5-Star Fairmont Hotel at St. Andrews, located on over 500 acres of rolling pristine countryside, with unlimited golf on Fairmont's two challenging golf courses (The Torrance and The Kittocks) on property, with the picturesque backdrop of the skyline of the nearby city of St. Andrews and St. Andrews Bay. We also added dates to play the Old Course (not knowing tee time until September of 2016) and the New Course at St. Andrews Links, along with playing one day at Kingsbarns Golf Links – the site of the 2017 RICOH Women's British Open in August of 2017.

Founder of the company four years prior, provided all of our transfers to and from the courses, airport, and even to the restaurants in town, if we did not want to take the hotel shuttle. The personal, hands-on services he and his partners provided were above and beyond and exceeded my expectations! He also sent a dining guide in advance, and made some recommendations and also set up all of our dining reservations in advance, as it was a busy time for tourists and travelers in July. We also opted to take a Caddie on the Old Course, as well as to include a professional photographer

Fairmont St. Andrews at Torrance and Kittocks

With unlimited play on The Torrance and Kittocks Courses, we had 5 days of golf booked along with 2 days to explore the area and enjoy some much-needed relaxation! We also had a lavish Scottish breakfast buffet included everyday at the wonderful Fairmont Hotel, along with drinks at the private Golf Club of St. Andrews, and dinner one evening at the Fairmont Bar & Grille located separately from the hotel, just steps away from the North Sea – the views were magnificent! The best part of this package was that our travel coordinator, Graeme Dawson, service, as they would capture our day on The Links and prepare a hand-made 32-page booklet as a wonderful memory and keepsake! All of this was arranged through St. Andrews Golf Travel – definitely the way to go.

St. Andrews Links is a place of infinite variety with the most renowned golfing landscape in the world. At the heart of the seven golf courses that comprise St. Andrews Links complex, lies the Old Course – it is only one of a family of seven – four of which are well over 100 years old! Those seven are the Old Course, The Castle Course, New Course, Jubilee Course, Eden Course, Strathrym Course, and Balgove Course.

Castle Course With Stunning View of St. Andrews Bay

We played two of the seven of the St. Andrews Links complex – the Old Course and New Course. I am glad we had a warm-up our first day of golf to experience the Scottish winds and rain on the Torrance Course at the Fairmont Hotel. It was a challenging and scenic course that gave us a taste of what we were possibly in store for the rest of our rounds. The second day was our round on the New Course. Again, the weather was challenging with winds and rain and many layers of clothing to keep warm and dry. By the 9th hole the rain had stopped and we were able to peel off some layers. The New Course features some double fairways and double greens with a classic links design. It was a delight to play especially when the rain stopped!

We now had two rounds under our belt before we played the Old Course. Wow! Just entering this historic and revered area of the first tee, which is next to the 18th green, is definitely a divine experience. With historic buildings, adjacent cobblestone streets lined with cars, spectators and their dogs all around and on the course, it was quite an experience to say the least. Each group of golfers seemed to have anywhere between eight to twelve people in their groups. Most golfers had caddies, and/or family members following taking photos or just enjoying the round. It was quite a spectacle.

Also, in the middle of the approach shot to the 18th green and in the middle of the fairway on Hole No. 1 was a narrow road that connected the side street and St. Andrews Bay. Cars, bikes and people are able to go across to either side as long as there are no golfers coming up upon them. Many times the caddies had to yell "Fore" as oblivious tourists were not aware of the upcoming tee or approach shots. Also, you would see wedding parties where the bride and groom were taking photos on the famous Swilcan Bridge located halfway on the fairway approaching the 18th green—all while golfers were playing through!

With historic buildings, adjacent cobblestone streets lined with cars, spectators and their dogs all around and on the course, it was quite an experience to say the least.

Fairmont St. Andrews Spa & Indoor Pool

I had a wonderful older caddie, named Colin Roberts who had tried his luck on the Scottish Tour in his earlier years, and is now a caddie 5 days a week and spends his weekends teaching others the mental side of golf. He has helped professional golfers such as Inbee Park and Michelle Wie master the mental side of the game, along with many amateur players. He made me feel comfortable and relaxed and also helped me with some shots by giving me great tips. He was the ultimate in what a caddie should be!

I highly encourage you to take a caddie when possible – price is roughly

50 British pounds along with a tip of 30 British pounds (average, more if they are outstanding) per golfer. It definitely is warranted on the Old Course and is extremely helpful, as much danger comes into play off many of the tee boxes including narrow winding landing areas, blind tee shots, fescue grasses and dangerous thorny “gorse” bushes. Also, with 3 tee boxes, the yardage is 6721 from the white tees, 6387 from the yellow tees, and 6032 from the red tees that include double greens and fairways. Ladies definitely do not get much of a break! The Old Course is the only course where you must present an established Handicap card to prove a maximum handicap of 24 for men and 36 for women. You will need this in order to book a tee time and play the course. You also need to have four golfers in order to book a tee time at the Old Course.

After our round at the Old Course we had a few pints of Scottish brew with our Travel Coordinator, Graeme, at the private Golf Club of St. Andrews, located directly across the street from the 18th fairway. It was a wonderful experience with a lot of history and scenic views of the course and St. Andrews Bay. We had been teamed up with a lovely couple from Canada – Wendy and Ryan. We had the pleasure of playing rounds with them on both the Old Course and the New Course.

The following day was a much-needed break as our bodies needed it and we wanted to explore the town area of St. Andrews. Home to St. Andrews University and 3 major streets – South Street, Market Street and North Street. You will find wonderful restaurants, quaint cafes and shops, and a bustling of locals along with many tourists enjoying a leisurely day of dining, sightseeing, and shopping. It was quieter than normal as the university students were on summer break during the time of our visit. We dined at some fabulous restaurants and pubs including The Seafood House, Little Italy, Playfairs, The Dunvegan Pub, Forgan's and Tailend (for fish and chips) ... just to name a few. We did some fun exploring and a lot of walking, as the city is very easy to navigate around. We also loved the restaurant at The Fairmont Hotel and enjoyed our daily breakfast and the Italian eatery on property. Also, the Fairmont Bar and Grille was wonderful for lunch and a steak dinner at the end of our last round on Friday.

My favorite course out of the five courses we played was Kingsbarns Golf Links – the site of the 2017 RICOH Women's British Open. We were told by a good source that Kingsbarns is the second highest revenue producing golf course in the world – with Pebble Beach being the first. If you were to call up for a tee time on your own at Kingsbarns Golf Links, you would be quoted a rate of £278 British pounds. The pro shop prices are also pretty steep but it's difficult to walk out without purchasing something as a keepsake. Every golfer is given a nice Kingsbarns logo zipper bag with tees and markers, along with a course bag tag with their name and date of play. Nice touch! You are made to feel very welcome upon arrival at this course and all of the courses. It's a challenge to walk and features a tremendous amount of elevation, scenic views of the sea and stunning landscape vistas. This by far was my favorite course to play out of the five. Also, it happened to be my best round of golf out of the five as well. Not sure why...but that is golf! We played with two brothers from North Carolina and New Jersey and thoroughly enjoyed our round with them.

Our final day of golf was at the Fairmont's Kittocks Course—which had just hosted a three-day “Under 16” Amateur Scottish golf tournament. The last day of the tournament, the players had to walk 36 holes on this course—with lots of elevation and some long holes to walk, and extremely fast greens. We played the course the day after the tournament and after walking our challenging round at Kingsbarns, and wished we had taken a golf cart (called buggies in Scotland).

The Golf Museum is a great place to visit right near The Seafood Restaurant and the first tee of the Old Course – which will take you back to the birthplace and early years of golf right there in St. Andrews.

We struggled to walk this course as the North Sea winds were very strong and the elevation on some holes was extremely steep and challenging. We did get through it, enjoyed a bowl of soup and a pint of brew following. We slept like babies that night— spent from the wind, the sun and all of the walking while pulling/pushing our golf clubs.

St. Andrews New Course

If you are a golfer, it's tough not to walk out after the full tour with tears in your eyes. The center movie area of the museum happened to be featuring a "Celebration Of Women's Golf" which showcased the beginning of women in golf and where it is today. It was great to see so many women golf professionals who have competed and won at St. Andrews. It truly is a special place! A must place to visit!

As our final day of the trip was approaching, we spent time again in the city of St. Andrews to do some final shopping and just soak in all of the history of this special place. The Golf Museum is a great place to visit right near The Seafood Restaurant and the first tee of the Old Course – which will take you back to the birthplace and early years of golf right there in St. Andrews. It's a must see if you really want to learn how golf got started, how so many tried to eliminate the sport, and where it is today.
